Chapter 11 Case No.
08-13555 (JMP)
(Jointly Administered)

DEBTORS' MOTION TO (A) SCHEDULE A SALE HEARING; (B) ESTABLISH SALES PROCEDURES; (C) APPROVE A BREAK-UP FEE; AND (D) APPROVE THE SALE OF THE PURCHASED ASSETS AND THE ASSUMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT OF CONTRACTS RELATING TO THE PURCHASED ASSETS

TO THE HONORABLE JAMES M. PECK,
UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Lehman Brothers Holdings Inc. ("LBHI") and LB 745 LLC ("LB 745"), as debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors" and, collectively with their nondebtor affiliates, "Lehman"), respectfully represent:

Background

1. On September 15, 2008 (the “Commencement Date”), LBHI commenced a voluntary case under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”). On September 16, 2008, LB 745 commenced a voluntary case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are authorized to continue to operate their businesses and manage their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Lehman’s Businesses

2. Lehman is the fourth largest investment bank in the United States, and for most of its 158 years, Lehman has been a leader in the global financial markets by serving the financial needs of corporations, governmental units, institutional clients, and individuals worldwide. Lehman offers a full array of financial services in equity and fixed income sales, trading and research, investment banking, asset management, private investment management, and private equity. LBHI’s non-debtor subsidiary, Lehman Brothers Inc. (“LB”), is a registered broker dealer. Lehman’s worldwide headquarters in New York and regional headquarters in London and Tokyo are complemented by a network of offices in North America, Europe, the Middle East, Latin America and the Asia Pacific region. On the Commencement Date, Lehman employed over 25,000 employees.

3. Information as to Lehman’s businesses, capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the commencement of the chapter 11 cases is contained in the Affidavit of Ian T. Lowitt Pursuant to Rule 1007-2 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York in Support of First-Day Motions and Applications, filed with the Court on September 15, 2008 (the “First Day Affidavit”).

Jurisdiction and Venue

4. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction to consider this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b). Venue is proper before this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

Relief Requested

5. The Debtors are requesting, pursuant to sections 105, 363, and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6003, 6004, 6006, and 9006, (i) an order (the “Sale Hearing Order”) substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1 (a) setting the time, date, and place of a hearing (the “Sale Hearing”) to consider the sale of the Purchased Assets¹ and (b) approving the procedures for the conduct of the sale, (c) approving the Break-Up Fee (as defined below), and (ii) an order approving (a) a sale of the Purchased Assets pursuant to that Asset Purchase Agreement (the “Purchase Agreement”), among Barclays Capital Inc. (“Purchaser”), the Debtors, and LBI (collectively, the “Seller”), dated September 16, 2008, a copy of which is annexed hereto as Exhibit 2, free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, and other interests, (b) the assumption and assignment of certain executory contracts and unexpired leases related to the Purchased Assets (collectively, the “Contracts”), pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, and (c) entry of an order substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 3 approving the Purchase Agreement (the “Sale Order”).

6. The sale of the Purchased Assets, is critical to the stabilization of value. Each day that the Purchased Assets are subject to the vagaries and vicissitudes of the marketplace and the impact of bankruptcy diminishes the value of such assets. Time is of the essence. The Purchase Agreement represents a reasonable exercise of business judgment by the

¹ Capitalized terms not defined in this Motion shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Purchase Agreement.

Debtors. The sale is in the best interests of the Debtors, their employees and their economic stakeholders. The relief requested in this Motion should be granted.

The Need for an Expeditious Sale

7. As set forth in the First Day Affidavit, as a financial services firm, Lehman is materially affected by conditions in the global financial markets and by worldwide economic conditions. For most of 2008, Lehman operated in an extremely unfavorable global business environment. The events of the past week that drove down Lehman's credit standing were particularly harmful to the ability of Lehman to sustain its operations. The combination of low levels of liquidity and the requirement that financial companies de-leverage their balance sheets resulted in downward pressure on financial asset prices. These global and national economic conditions, in the aggregate, depressed both the valuations of Lehman's inventory positions as well as transactional volumes and market activity levels in which Lehman's capital markets and investment banking business segments operated. Ultimately, the instability in the financial and credit markets caused significant liquidity problems and credit downgrades for Lehman. These factors resulted in a chain reaction of adverse economic consequences that impeded its ability to maintain normal business operations. Attempts to pursue strategic alternatives were thwarted by its financial deterioration and lack of support from other entities.

8. As a result, the Debtors commenced their chapter 11 cases to preserve and maximize the value, protect their public customers, limit turmoil in the financial markets and benefit Lehman's creditors and employees. The proposed sale will maximize the value of the Purchased Assets and avoid rapid erosion of their value.

9. Pursuant to the Purchase Agreement, the Purchaser will pay approximately $1.7 billion in cash for the Purchased Assets plus assume other obligations and expenses. The Purchased Assets include designated assets relating to LBI's business which are owned by LBI as well as certain assets which are owned by LBHI and related to the business of LBI. These include Lehman's worldwide headquarters which is owned by LB 745.

10. Upon consummation of the transaction, the Purchaser will assume ownership of substantially all operations of LBI, including assumption of Seller's liabilities under assumed contracts, and performance under Seller's obligations as to securities and other transactions. All remaining customer accounts will be transferred to the Purchaser. The Purchaser also will assume substantial liabilities relating to LBI's employees, estimated at approximately $2.5 billion. The sale will relieve LBHI of exposure based upon its guarantees of many of LBI's obligations.

11. LBI is a valuable, but highly sensitive, asset of LBHI. Its value is greatly dependent upon its ability to assure its clients and customers of its financial and operational integrity. In the circumstances of Lehman's instability, Lehman cannot instill that assurance in its clients and customers. Consequently, it is urgent to sell the Purchased Assets now or face material disruption of their value. Hence, the instant motion.

12. To effectuate the critical sale and provide the Purchaser with its required protections pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Purchase Agreement contemplates that, prior to the Sale Hearing, LBI will consent to the commencement of a case under the Securities Investor Protection Act of 1970 ("SIPA"), 15 U.S.C. §§ 78aaa, et seq. In that proceeding, the Debtors will request that the SIPA Trustee consent to the sale and request the SIPA Court's approval thereof. The Securities Investor Protection Corporation ("SIPC") and the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), as well as the Federal Reserve Bank, have been apprised of the sale and the need for immediate approval of the sale by the SIPA

Trustee and the SIPA Court in order to preserve the value of the Purchased Assets and assist in the stabilization of the financial markets.

13. The expeditious consummation of the sale pursuant to the Purchase Agreement maximizes the value of the Purchased Assets and serves the best interests of all parties.

The Purchase Agreement

14. The Purchase Agreement includes the following salient provisions:²

- Closing Date. The Closing must occur on or before September 23, 2008.
- Purchase and Sale of Purchased Assets. On the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Purchase Agreement, at the Closing, the Purchaser shall purchase the Purchased Assets, free and clear of all Liens, pursuant to Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Purchased Assets include LBI's assets, as well as three real properties, including Lehman's corporate headquarters and two data centers. Buyer will also purchase the "Lehman" name and associated trademarks, but will license the use of that name back to the estate and other Lehman affiliates for a period of time.
- Purchase Price and Assumed Liabilities. In exchange for the Purchased Assets, Buyer will pay Sellers approximately $1.7 billion in cash. In addition, Buyer is assuming various liabilities of Sellers, including transfer taxes, accounts payable in the ordinary course of business, cure costs, and future liabilities under assigned contracts and leases.
- Assumption of Contracts. The Purchaser shall have the right, but not the obligation, to take assignment of contracts and leases which are designated for assumption and assignment by Purchaser. The parties estimate that the cure costs associated with such assumptions and assignments will be approximately $1.5 billion.
- Continued Employment for Domestic Employees. All domestic employees of LBI will have the opportunity to continue their employment with Purchaser on the same terms they currently have with Lehman through December 31, 2008. If such employees are terminated by Purchaser without cause, they will be given their severance in an amount equal to what they would have been paid if they had continued to be employed by Lehman.

- Transition Services. The Purchaser will provide certain transition services until the Closing.

Extraordinary Provisions in the Purchase Agreement

15. Break-Up Fee. The Purchase Agreement provides that Seller shall pay Purchaser a break-up fee in an amount equal to $100 million plus up to $25 million for expense reimbursement (the “Break-Up Fee”) on the first Business Day following the date of consummation of a Competing Bid, if no material breach by Purchaser of this Agreement has occurred.

16. The United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit has approved break-up fees in bankruptcy cases, where warranted and consistent with market practices. See Official Committee of Subordinated Bondholders v. Integrated Resources, Inc. (In re Integrated Resources, Inc.), 147 B.R. 650 (S.D.N.Y. 1992), appeal dismissed, 3 F.3d 49 (2d Cir. 1993). Specifically, the Second Circuit has held that break-up fees should be approved as long as (i) the relationship between the parties is not tainted by self-dealing, (ii) the fee does not hamper bidding, and (iii) the amount of the fee is reasonable in relation to the size of the transaction. Id. at 657. The approval of break-up fees and other forms of bidding protections in connection with the sale of significant assets pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code have become an established practice in chapter 11 cases. Bankruptcy courts have approved bidding incentives similar to the Break-Up Fee under the “business judgment rule,” pursuant to which deference is granted to the actions of a board of directors taken in good faith and in the exercise of honest judgment.³

³ For instance, in In re Loral Space & Communications Ltd., Case No. 03-41710 (RDD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003), this Court approved a break-up fee of $20 million, equal to approximately 2% of the purchase price on the grounds

17. The Break-Up Fee of $100 million required by the Purchaser meets the “business judgment rule” standard. Moreover, it recognizes the enormity of the effort made by the Purchaser in the negotiation of the Purchase Agreement. The proposed sale is unique because of the fragile and highly vulnerable nature of the Purchased Assets. Break-up fees enable a debtor to assure a sale to a contractually committed bidder at a price the debtor believes is fair and reasonable. See also, e.g., In re Footstar, Inc., Case No. 04-22350 (ASH) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2004); In re Loral Space & Communications Ltd., Case No. 03-41710 (RDD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003); In re Magellan Health Services, Inc., Case No. 03-405115 (PCB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003); In re Adelphia Business Solutions, Inc., Case No. 02-11389 (REG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2002); In re Global Crossing Ltd., Case No. 02-40187 (REG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2002); In re Bethlehem Steel Corp., Case Nos. 01-15288 through 01-15302, 01-15308 through 01-15315 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2001); In re Rhythms Netconnections Inc., Case No. 01-14283 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2001).

18. The proposed Break-Up Fee is reasonable in the context of these cases, and the Break-Up Fee should be approved.

19. Employment of Key Employees and Critical Employees. Approximately 200 employees of the Sellers have been designated as key to the success of the business, and 8 employees have been designated as critical to the success of the business. The retention of a substantial majority of key employees, and all 8 critical employees, is a condition precedent to the Closing. This provision represents a reasonable recognition by Purchaser that the that such fee was reasonable, did not hamper the bidding process, and the relationship among the parties was not tainted by self-dealing. Similarly in In re Magellan Health Services, Inc., Case No. 03-405115 (PCB) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003), Judge Beatty approved a break-up fee of 2% of the purchase price. Bidding protections similar to those requested by the Debtors have routinely been approved by courts in this district. See, e.g., In re Adelphia Business Solutions, Inc., Case No. 02-11389 (REG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2002) (approving termination fee and reimbursement of expenses).

relationships between key employees and Lehman customers represents a significant portion of the inherent value of the business. Without these employees, the Purchaser may lose critical human capital that it needs for business continuity.

20. In addition, the Purchaser will offer continued employment to approximately ten thousand plus U.S.-based employees of LBI for a period of 90 days. To the extent of job eliminations during that period, the Purchaser shall pay such employees severance benefits equal to what would have been received under LBI's severance policy. That amount is equal to twenty percent of the employee's compensation for the prior year. It is estimated that the potential cost to the Purchaser will be $2.5 billion.

Sale Notice Provisions

21. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a), the Debtors are required to provide creditors with twenty (20) days' notice of the Sale Hearing. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002(c), the Debtors are required to notify their creditors of the proposed sale of the Purchased Assets, including a disclosure of the time and place of the Sale Hearing, the terms and conditions of the sale, and the deadline for filing any objections. It is necessary to shorten the customary notice period, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9006, to avoid erosion of the value of the Purchased Assets.

22. The Debtors propose to serve a notice of the Sale Hearing (the "Sale Notice"), by electronic mail, facsimile, or overnight delivery, upon (a) the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York, (b) the attorneys for any statutory committee appointed in this case; (c) those creditors holding the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors' estates; (d) all parties who have requested notice in the chapter 11 cases, (e) any party that previously expressed an interest in the Purchased Assets, (f) parties to Contracts that may be assumed and assigned to Purchaser, and (f) any other parties as required by the Court, so as to be received by September 18, 2008. The Debtors propose that the Sale Notice direct parties in interest to an internet site (the "Website"), which will contain all the relevant information pertaining to the Purchase Agreement and the Sale Hearing, including (a) the Sale Notice, (b) the Purchase Agreement, and (c) the Procedures Order.

Sale of the Purchased Assets

23. Ample authority exists for approval of the proposed sale. Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, "The trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). Although section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code does not set forth a standard for determining when it is appropriate for a court to authorize the sale or disposition of a debtor's assets, courts in the Second Circuit and others, in applying this section, have required that it be based upon the sound business judgment of the debtor. See In re Chateaugay Corp., 973 F.2d 141 (2d Cir. 1992) (holding that a judge reviewing a section 363(b) application must find from the evidence presented a good business reason to grant such application); Committee of Equity Security Holders v. Lionel Corp. (In re Lionel Corp.), 722 F.2d 1063, 1071 (2d Cir. 1983) (same). Moreover, Bankruptcy Rule 6004(f)(1) provides that "[a]ll sales not in the ordinary course of business may be by private sale or by public auction." Courts often allow a chapter 11 debtor to sell assets outside the ordinary course of business by private sale when the debtor demonstrates that the sale is permissible pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., In re Loral Space & Communications Ltd., et al., Case No. 03-41710 (RDD) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Sep. 30, 2005); In re International Wire Group, Inc., et al., Case No. 04-11991 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 10, 2004); Palermo v. Pritam Realty, Inc. (In re Pritam Realty, Inc.), 233

B.R. 619 (D.P.R. 1999) (upholding the bankruptcy court's approval of a private sale conducted by a chapter 11 debtor); In re Wieboldt Stores, Inc., 92 B.R. 309 (N.D. Ill. 1988) (affirming right of chapter 11 debtor to transfer assets by private sale); In re Condere Corp., 228 B.R. 615 (Bankr. S.D. Miss. 1998) (approving a private sale of a chapter 11 debtor's assets where the standards of section 363(b) were met).

24. The proposed sale will result in the highest and best recovery for the Debtors. In the pursuit of strategic alternatives, LBHI has attempted to sell the Purchased Assets together with other Lehman assets. Indeed, the financial community is well aware that the Purchased Assets were for sale. The only serious offeror is the Purchaser.

25. Section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part, that "[t]he trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). To sell property under section 363(b), the Debtors must demonstrate to the Court a "good business reason" for the proposed action. See Licensing by Paolo, Inc. v. Sinatra (In re Gucci), 126 F.3d 380, 387 (2d. Cir 1997) ("A sale of a substantial part of a [c]hapter 11 estate other than in the ordinary course of business may be conducted if a good business reason exists to support it."); Comm. of Equity Sec. Holders v. Lionel Corp. (In re Lionel Corp.), 722 F.2d 1063, 1071 (2d Cir. 1983) (in considering a sale outside a plan of reorganization, a judge must not be shackled with unnecessarily rigid rules when exercising the broad administrative power granted him under the Bankruptcy Code, but must simply find "a good business reason" supporting the sale); In re Global Crossing, Ltd., 295 B.R. 726, 743 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003). As this Court has stated, "[w]here the debtor articulates a reasonable basis for its business decisions (as distinct from a decision made arbitrarily or capriciously), courts will generally not entertain objections to the debtor's conduct." Comm. of

Asbestos-Related Litigants v. Johns-Manville Corp. (In re Johns-Manville Corp.), 60 B.R. 612, 616 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986). When a valid business justification exists, the law vests the debtor's decision to use property out of the ordinary course of business with a strong presumption that "in making a business decision the directors of a corporation acted on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the company." Official Comm. of Subordinated Bondholders v. Integrated Res., Inc. (In re Integrated Res., Inc.), 147 B.R. 650, 656 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (quoting Smith v. Van Gorkom, 488 A.2d 858, 872 (Del. 1985)).

Sale of the Purchased Assets Free and Clear of Liens, Claims, Encumbrances, and Interests

26. It is appropriate for the Purchased Assets to be sold to the Purchaser free and clear of liens, claims, encumbrances, and interests pursuant to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, with any such liens, claims, encumbrances, or interests to attach to the net sale proceeds of the sale of the Purchased Assets. See MacArthur Co. v. Johns-Manville Corp., 837 F.2d 89, 94 (2d Cir. 1988) ("It has long been recognized that when a debtor's assets are disposed of free and clear of third-party interests, the third party is adequately protected if his interest is assertable against the proceeds of the disposition."); Circus Time, Inc. v. Oxford Bank & Trust (In re Circus Time, Inc.), 5 B.R. 1, 8 (Bankr. D. Me. 1979) (finding the Court's power to sell property free and clear of liens has long been recognized); see also In re Riverside Inv. P'ship, 674 F.2d 634, 640 (7th Cir. 1982) ("Generally, in a 'free and clear' sale, the liens are impressed on the proceeds of the sale and discharged at the time of sale....").

27. Any lien, claim, encumbrance, or interest in the Purchased Assets will be adequately protected by attachment to the net proceeds of the sale, subject to any claims and defenses the Debtors may possess with respect thereto. See In re Circus Time, Inc., 5 B.R. at 7.

Moreover, each of the parties that may hold liens on the Purchased Assets could be compelled to accept a monetary satisfaction of such interests, satisfying section 363(f)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. Thus, sale of the Purchased Assets free and clear of liens, claims, encumbrances, and interests will satisfy the statutory prerequisites of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Accordingly, the Purchased Assets are to be transferred to Purchaser free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, and interests, with any such liens, claims, encumbrances, and interests to attach to the net sale proceeds realized from the sale.

Assumption and Assignment of Contracts

28. To facilitate and effect the sale of the Purchased Assets, the Debtors seek authorization to assume and assign the Contracts to the Purchaser. In order to provide counterparties with adequate notice of such assumption and proposed adequate cure amounts (the “Cure Amounts”), the Contracts have been divided into two categories. The first category is comprised of those Contracts that the Purchaser requires be assumed and assigned on the Closing Date (the “Closing Date Contracts”). The second category is comprised of Contracts as to which the Purchaser has sixty days within which to decide whether it wants to pay the Cure Amounts and assume the obligations thereunder (the “Designated Contracts”).

29. Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a debtor in possession “subject to the court’s approval may assume or reject any executory contracts or unexpired leases of the debtor.” 11 U.S.C. § 365(a). Upon finding that a debtor has exercised its sound business judgment in determining to assume an executory contract or unexpired lease, courts will approve the assumption under section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. See Nostas Assocs. v. Costich (In re Klein Sleep Prods., Inc.), 78 F.3d 18, 25 (2d Cir. 1996); Orion Pictures

Corp. v. Showtime Networks, Inc. (In re Orion Pictures Corp.), 4 F.3d 1095, 1099 (2d Cir. 1993).

30. The assumption and assignment of the Contracts to the Purchaser is in the best interests of their estates and a proper exercise of business judgment. It allows the Debtors to avoid rejection damages if those contracts or leases would otherwise be rejected. Purchaser has agreed to pay all undisputed Cure Amounts associated with the Contracts, which are estimated to be approximately $1.5 billion.

31. Section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that the Debtors cure, or provide adequate assurance that they will promptly cure, any outstanding defaults under the Contracts that they will assume or assume and assign to the Purchaser. The Debtors and the Purchaser intend to develop a list of Closing Date Contracts, calculate the Cure Amounts relating thereto, and notify the counterparties thereto as soon as practicable, and in any event prior to the Sale Hearing. With respect to the Designated Contracts, the Debtors intend to file a motion setting forth the proposed procedure for notice and payment of Cure Amounts.

32. Pursuant to section 365(f)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor in possession may assign an executory contract or unexpired lease of nonresidential real property if “adequate assurance of future performance by the assignee of such contract or lease is provided, whether or not there has been a default in such contract or lease.” 11 U.S.C. § 365(f)(2). The meaning of “adequate assurance of future performance” depends on the facts and circumstances of each case, but should be given “practical, pragmatic construction.” See Carlisle Homes, Inc. v. Arrari (In re Carlisle Homes, Inc.), 103 B.R. 524, 538 (Bankr. D.N.J. 1989) (citation omitted); see also In re Natco Indus., Inc., 54 B.R. 436, 440 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1985) (adequate assurance of future performance does not mean absolute assurance that debtor will thrive and pay rent); In re Bon Ton Rest. & Pastry Shop, Inc., 53 B.R. 789, 803 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1985) (“[a]lthough no single solution will satisfy every case, the required assurance will fall considerably short of an absolute guarantee of performance.”).

33. Among other things, adequate assurance may be given by demonstrating the assignee’s financial health and experience in managing the type of enterprise or property assigned. See In re Bygaph, Inc., 56 B.R. 596, 605-06 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) (adequate assurance of future performance is present when prospective assignee of lease has financial resources and expressed willingness to devote sufficient funding to business to give it strong likelihood of succeeding; chief determinant of adequate assurance is whether rent will be paid).

34. At the Sale Hearing, the Debtors will be prepared to proffer testimony or present evidence to demonstrate the financial credibility, willingness, and ability of Purchaser to perform under the Closing Date Contracts. The Sale Hearing, therefore, will provide the Court and other interested parties with the opportunity to evaluate the ability of the Purchaser to provide adequate assurance of future performance under the Closing Date Contracts, as required by section 365(b)(1)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that at the conclusion of the Sale Hearing, the proposed assumption and assignment the Closing Date Contracts should be approved, to be effective upon entry of the order approving the Motion.

35. Notwithstanding any anti-assignment language in a Closing Date Contract, the Debtors seek permission to assign such Closing Date Contract, provided that the Debtors first assume the Closing Date Contract and then provide adequate assurance of future performance by the Purchaser. To facilitate the assumption and assignment of the Closing Date Contracts, the

Debtors therefore request that the Court find all anti-assignment provisions of the Closing Date Contracts to be unenforceable under section 365(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.⁴

36. Section 365(k) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that assignment by the debtor to an entity of a contract or lease “relieves the trustee and the estate from any liability for any breach of such contract or lease occurring after such assignment.” 11 U.S.C. § 365(k). Pursuant to section 365(k), the Debtors and the estates shall be relieved from any liability for any breach of any Closing Date Contract after such assignment to and assumption by the Purchaser upon entry of an order approving the Motion.

Good Faith Purchaser

37. Section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code states:

The reversal or modification on appeal of an authorization under subsection (b) or (c) of this section of a sale or lease of property does not affect the validity of a sale or lease under such authorization to an entity that purchased or leased such property in good faith, whether or not such entity knew of the pendency of the appeal, unless such authorization and such sale or lease were stayed pending appeal.

11 U.S.C. § 363(m). Section 363(m) thus provides that a purchaser of property of the estate is protected from the effects of a reversal on appeal of the authorization to sell such property as long as the purchaser acted in good faith and the appellant failed to obtain a stay of the sale.

38. Although the Bankruptcy Code does not define the meaning of “good-faith purchaser,” most courts have adopted a traditional equitable definition: “one who purchases the

⁴ Section 365(f)(1) provides in part that, “notwithstanding a provision in an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, or in applicable law, that prohibits, restricts, or conditions the assignment of such contract or lease, the trustee may assign such contract or lease...” 11 U.S.C. § 365(f)(1). Section 365(f)(3) further provides that “Notwithstanding a provision in an executory contract or unexpired lease of the debtor, or in applicable law that terminates or modifies, or permits a party other than the debtor to terminate or modify, such contract or lease or a right or obligation under such contract or lease on account of an assignment of such contract or lease, such contract, lease, right, or obligation may not be terminated or modified under such provision because of the assumption or assignment of such contract or lease by the trustee.” 11 U.S.C. § 365(f)(3).

assets for value, in good faith and without notice of adverse claims.” See, e.g., Licensing by

Paolo, 126 F.3d at 390. The Second Circuit has stated that:

[g]ood faith of a purchaser is shown by the integrity of his conduct during the course of the sale proceedings; where there is a lack of such integrity, a good faith finding may not be made. A purchaser’s good faith is lost by ‘fraud, collusion between the purchaser and other bidders or the trustee, or an attempt to take grossly unfair advantage of other bidders.’

Id. (internal citations omitted).

39. The terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement were negotiated by the Debtors and Purchaser at arm’s length and in good faith. Each party was represented by sophisticated counsel. Accordingly, the Debtors request that the Court determine that the Purchaser has acted in good faith and is entitled to the protections of a good faith purchaser under section 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Request for Relief Under Bankruptcy Rules 6003(b), 6004(g), and 6006(d)

40. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) permits a debtor to use, sell, lease, or otherwise incur an obligation regarding property of the estate during the first 20 days of a case only to the extent it is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm. As set forth in greater detail above, it is necessary to sell the Purchased Assets during the first 20 days of these cases to avoid the immediate deterioration of value that will result without consummation of the proposed sale. Accordingly, Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) has been satisfied.

41. Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) provides an “order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property is stayed until the expiration of 10 days after entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise.” FED. R. BANKR. P. 6004(h). Bankruptcy Rule 6006(d) further provides that an “order authorizing the trustee to assign an executory contract or unexpired lease under § 365(f) is stayed until the expiration of 10 days after the entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise.” FED. R. BANKR. P. 6006(d). In light of the fragility of the Purchased Assets and the need to stabilize the business of LBI and consummate the sale, the order approving the sale of the Purchased Assets, if granted, and the assumption and assignment of the Closing Date Contracts to the Purchaser in accordance with this Motion must be effective immediately upon entry of such order. Therefore, waiver of the ten-day stay under Bankruptcy Rules 6004(h) and 6006(d) is requested.

42. No trustee, examiner, or statutory creditors' committee has been appointed in these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors have served notice of this Motion on (i) the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Trustee"), (ii) those creditors holding the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors' estates, (iii) the SEC, (iv) the Internal Revenue Service, (v) the United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, (vi) counsel for the Purchaser, (vii) SIPC, (viii) Rock-Forty-Ninth LLC, (ix) all entities known to have asserted any lien, claim, interest or encumbrance in or upon the Purchased Assets, and (x) all parties who have requested notice in these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors submit that no other or further notice need be given.

43. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made to this or any other court.

WHEREFORE the Debtors respectfully request that the Court grant the relief requested and such other and further relief as is just.

¹ Capitalized terms used herein but not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to such terms in the Agreement.

Sale Hearing held on September 17, 2008 with respect to procedural matters set forth in the Motion, including the testimony and evidence admitted at the Hearing; and after due deliberation thereon, and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:²

A. The Court has jurisdiction over this matter and over the property of the Debtors and their respective bankruptcy estates pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a) and 1334. This matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), (N), and (O). The statutory predicates for the relief sought herein are 11 U.S.C. §§ 105, 363, 364(c)(1) and 365 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. (“Bankruptcy Rules”) 2002, 6004, 6006, 9006 and 9014. Venue of these cases and the Sale Motion is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

B. The relief requested in the Sale Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, LBI, the stakeholders of the foregoing, and other parties-in-interest.

C. Good cause exists to shorten the applicable notice periods in Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 6004 and 6006 and the applicable notice periods in the Local Rules.

D. The Debtors’ estates will suffer immediate and irreparable harm if the preliminary relief requested in Sale Motion is not granted on an expedited basis consistent with the provisions set forth herein.

E. The notice of the Sale Motion and the Hearing given by the Debtors constitutes due and sufficient notice thereof given the wasting nature of the Purchased Assets and the exigent circumstances relating to this case.

F. The Debtors have articulated good and sufficient reasons for the Court to (i) approve the Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement (each as defined on Exhibit A attached hereto) as provided in the Purchase Agreement and in this Order, (ii) approve certain matters relating to competing bids, if any, (iii) approve the form and manner of notice of the Sale Motion, the Sale Hearing, and the assumption and/or assignment of the Contracts and (iv) set the Sale Hearing.

² Findings of fact shall be construed as conclusions of law and conclusions of law shall be construed as findings of fact when appropriate. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7052.

G. The Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement shall be payable in accordance with the terms, conditions, and limitations of the Purchase Agreement, this Order and Exhibit A and (i) if triggered, shall be deemed an actual and necessary cost and expense of preserving the Debtors' estates, within the meaning of section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) is of substantial benefit to the Debtors' estates, (iii) is reasonable and appropriate, including in light of the size and nature of the Sale, the wasting nature of the Debtors' assets, and the efforts that have been and will be expended by the Purchaser notwithstanding that the proposed Sale is subject to higher or better Qualified Bids (as defined below) for the Purchased Assets, (iv) has been negotiated by the parties and their respective advisors at arms' length and in good faith and (v) is necessary to ensure that the Purchaser will continue to pursue its proposed acquisition of the Purchased Assets. The Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement are material inducements for, and conditions of, the Purchaser's entry into the Purchase Agreement. The Purchaser is unwilling to commit to hold open its offer to purchase the Purchased Assets under the terms of the Purchase Agreement unless it is assured of payment of the Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement. Thus, assurance to the Purchaser of payment of the Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement promotes the possibility of competitive bidding. Thus, the Purchaser has provided a benefit to the Debtors' estates by leaving its bid open for a period of time.

H. The matters set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto are reasonable and appropriate and represent the best method for maximizing the realizable value of the Purchased Assets.

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. The procedures set forth in the Sale Motion and the Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement are approved.

2. All objections filed or asserted in response to the Sale Motion are hereby overruled, to the extent that they relate to the procedures.

The Purchaser's Bid

3. The transaction contemplated by the Purchase Agreement is designated as the "Purchaser's Bid."

Bid Matters

4. The matters set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference, are hereby approved and shall govern all matters relating to any competing bids to the Purchaser's Bid for the Purchased Assets.

5. If the Sellers do not receive any Qualified Bids, other than the Purchaser's Bid, by the Bid Deadline (as defined on Exhibit A), the Debtors shall seek approval of the Purchaser's Bid pursuant to the Purchase Agreement at the Sale Hearing (as defined below).

6. The failure specifically to include or reference a particular provision of the matters set forth on Exhibit A in this Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provision, it being the intent of the Court that the matters set forth on Exhibit A be authorized and approved in their entirety as modified by this Order.

Sale Hearing

7. The Court shall hold a hearing on September 19, 2008 at .m (New York time) (the "Sale Hearing") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York in the courtroom of the Honorable James M. Peck, at which time the Court shall consider the Sale Motion and approve the Successful Bidder. Objections to the Sale Motion, if any, shall be filed and served on each of the Notice Parties (defined below) no later than 4:00 p.m. (New York time) on September 18, 2008 (the "Objection Deadline"). The Sale Hearing shall not be adjourned or canceled without prior consent of the Purchaser.

8. The failure of any objecting person or entity to timely file and serve its objection by the Objection Deadline shall be a bar to the assertion, at the Sale Hearing or thereafter, of any objection to the Motion, the Sale, or the Debtors' consummation and performance of the Purchase Agreement (including the transfer of the Purchased Assets and the Closing Date Contracts free and clear of liens, claims, and encumbrances).

9. The Sale Hearing may be adjourned by the Debtors with the prior consent of the Purchaser from time to time without further notice to creditors or parties-in-interest other than by announcement of the adjournment in open court or an entry of an order on the Court's docket.

Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement

10. The Debtors are authorized and shall pay the Break-Up Fee and the Expense Reimbursement upon the occurrence of any Break-Up Fee Event as provided under the Purchase Agreement without further order of the Court. The Break-Up Fee shall be $100,000,000, and shall be paid no later than two (2) business days after it becomes payable as set forth in the Purchase Agreement. In addition, the Expense Reimbursement shall be paid by the Debtors no later than five (5) business days after delivery of an invoice to the Debtors, subject to an aggregate cap of $25,000,000 (the "Expense Reimbursement Cap").

11. The Debtors' obligation to pay the Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement, as provided by the Purchase Agreement, this Order and Exhibit A hereto shall be joint and several, shall survive termination of the Purchase Agreement, shall constitute a superpriority administrative priority claim against each of the Debtors pursuant to sections 105(a) and 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code until paid in accordance with the Purchase Agreement. In the event that the Debtors (or any of their affiliates) receive any proceeds from an Alternate Transaction prior to their payment of the Break-Up Fee or Expense Reimbursement, such proceeds in an amount equal to the unpaid portion of the Break-Up Fee and the Expense Reimbursement Cap shall be held in trust for the Purchaser until the Break-Up Fee and the Expense Reimbursement are paid in full pursuant to this Order and the Purchase Agreement.

Notice

12. Notice of (a) the Motion, (b) the Sale Hearing and (c) the proposed assumption and/or assignment of the Closing Date Contracts to the Purchaser pursuant to the Purchase Agreement or to a different Successful Bidder shall be good and sufficient, and no other or further notice shall be required, if given as follows:

(a) Notice of Sale Hearing. Within one (1) day after entry of this Order (the “Mailing Date”), the Debtors (or their agent) shall make a copy of this Order (including Exhibit A to this Order) (the “Sale Notice”), the Sale Motion, the Purchase Agreement and the proposed Sale Approval Order (as defined in the Sale Motion) available and shall provide notice of the Sale in a form which is reasonably acceptable to the Purchaser by email, facsimile, federal express or other overnight delivery service, upon (i) the Office of the United States Trustee, (ii) counsel for the Purchaser, (iii) counsel for the Creditors’ Committee, (iv) the Company’s thirty largest creditors, (v) Rock-Forty-Ninth LLC, (vi) all entities known to have asserted any lien, claim, interest or encumbrance in or upon the Purchased Assets, (vii) all non-Debtor parties to Closing Date Contracts, (viii) the United States Attorney’s office, (ix) the United States Department of Justice, (x) the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”), (xi) the Federal Reserve Bank of New York (“FRBNY”), (xii) the Securities Investor Protection Corporation, (xiii) the Internal Revenue Service, and (xiv) all persons who have filed a notice of appearance in these cases.

(b) Assumption, Assignment and Cure Notice. At least one (1) day prior to the Sale Hearing, the Debtors shall file with this Court and serve on each non-Debtor party to a Contract by federal express, or other overnight delivery service, a notice of assumption, assignment and cure in a form reasonably acceptable to the Purchaser (the “Assumption, Assignment and Cure Notice”). The Assumption, Assignment and Cure Notice shall state that parties to Contracts may find out whether their contract is proposed for assumption and assignment to Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement by visiting <http://chapter11.epiqsystems.com/lehman> (the “Website”). If the Contract is one which the Purchaser designates for assumption and assignment at the closing (a "Closing Date Contract"), the Debtors will compute the appropriate cure amount (the "Cure Amount") for such Closing Date Contract and will list such Cure Amounts on the Website. If the Contract is one which the Purchaser designates for assumption and assignment within the 60 days after the Closing (a "Designated Contract"), the Debtors will file a motion for approval of procedures with respect to Designated Contracts at a later date.

(c) Any non-Debtor party to a Closing Date Contract shall file and serve on the Notice Parties any objections to (i) the proposed assumption and assignment to the Purchaser (and must state in its objection, with specificity, the legal and factual basis of its objection) and (ii) if applicable, the proposed Cure Amount (and must state in its objection, with specificity, what Cure Amount is required with appropriate documentation in support thereof), no later than the Sale Hearing. If no objection is timely received, (x) the non-Debtor party to the Closing Date Contract shall be deemed to have consented to the assumption and assignment of the Closing Date Contract to the Purchaser and shall be forever barred from asserting any objection with regard to such assumption and assignment, and (y) any Cure Amount identified pursuant to the Assumption, Assignment and Cure Notice shall be controlling, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Closing Date Contract, or any other document, and the non-Debtor party to a Closing Date Contract shall be deemed to have consented to the Cure Amount and shall be forever barred from asserting any other claims related to such Closing Date Contract against the Debtors or the Purchaser, or the property of any of them.

(d) Successful Competing Bidder Other Than Purchaser. If a Successful Bidder other than the Purchaser is declared by the Debtors' Board of Directors, then no later than one (1) business day after that declaration, the Debtors shall send a subsequent Assumption, Assignment and Cure Notice to each non-Debtor party to an Contract identifying the Successful Competing Bidder.

13. This Court shall retain jurisdiction to hear and determine all matters arising from the implementation of this Order.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

Exhibit A

LEHMAN BROTHERS HOLDINGS INC.

By order of the Bankruptcy Court, set forth below are certain matters to be employed with respect to the proposed sale (the "Sale") of the Purchased Assets of the Debtors as set forth in the Purchase Agreement (as defined below). On September 16, 2008 the Debtors executed that certain Asset Purchase Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") with Barclays Capital, Inc. (the "Purchaser"). The transaction contemplated by the Purchase Agreement is subject to competitive bidding as set forth herein and approval by the Bankruptcy Court (as defined below) pursuant to sections 105(a), 363 and 365 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1330, as amended (the "Bankruptcy Code"), and certain other closing conditions.

On September 17, 2008, the Debtors filed the Sale Motion seeking entry of the Orders: (I)(A) authorizing a Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement, (B) approving certain matters relating to competing bids, if any, (C) the form and manner of sale notices and (D) a date for the Sale Hearing, and (II) (A) authorizing and approving the Sale of certain of the Debtors' assets free and clear of all liens, claims and encumbrances, (B) authorizing and approving the assumption and assignment of certain prepetition executory contracts and unexpired leases (the "Contracts") to the Purchaser or the Successful Bidder(s) and (C) granting related relief. On September __, 2008, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court") entered an Order: (I) authorizing a Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement, (B) approving certain matters relating to competing bids, if any, as set forth in the Purchase Agreement, (C) approving the form and manner of sale notices and (D) fixing a date for the Sale Hearing (such order, the "Break-Up Fee and Competing Bid Order"). Terms used but not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Break-Up Fee and Competing Bid Order. The Break-Up Fee and Competing Bid Order set [September __], 2008 as the date when the Bankruptcy Court will conduct a hearing (the "Sale Hearing") to authorize the Debtors to enter into the Purchase Agreement.

1. No Competing Bids to be Evaluated by the Debtors Other than Qualified Bids

The Debtors shall not consider or evaluate putative competing bids for the Purchased Assets except in accordance with the provisions set forth below (such bids meeting the criteria set forth herein, "Qualified Bids"). The manner in which bidders and bids become Qualified Bidders (as defined below) and Qualified Bids, respectively, the provision of confidential information to bidders, the receipt and negotiation of bids received, the ultimate selection of the Successful Bidder(s), and the Bankruptcy Court's approval thereof (the "Bid Matters") are discussed below. In the event that the Debtors and any party disagree as to any Bid Matters, the Bankruptcy Court will have jurisdiction to hear and resolve such dispute.

2. Debtors Shall Not Solicit or Engage In Discussions Regarding Proposals for Competing Transactions

From the date of execution of the Purchase Agreement until the earlier of (i) the Closing and (ii) the termination of the Purchase Agreement in accordance with its terms, none of Debtors, any of the Debtors' direct or indirect subsidiaries, or any agent or advisor to the Debtors or any of the Debtors' direct or indirect subsidiaries shall, directly or indirectly, through any officer, director, employee, agent, professional, advisor, other representative ("Representatives") or otherwise, (A) solicit, initiate, encourage or facilitate any proposal or offer from any Person (other than the Purchaser) relating to any financing, refinancing, acquisition, divestiture, business combination or reorganization or similar transaction involving a material portion the Business, the Purchased Assets or the business, assets or operations of LBI or any of its subsidiaries or the equity securities of LBI or any of its subsidiaries (a "Competing Transaction"), (B) enter into discussions or negotiations regarding a Competing Transaction, (C) furnish any information with respect to, enter into any agreement or understanding with respect to, otherwise assist or participate in, or facilitate in any other manner any Competing Transaction (including, without limitation, executing any confidentiality agreement with any other Person with respect to a Competing Transaction), (D) waive any rights under any existing standstill or waiver agreements, or (E) seek or support Bankruptcy Court approval of a motion regarding bid procedures or expense reimbursement or break up fee for the benefit of any party with respect to a Competing Transaction or take any action inconsistent in any way with the Purchase Agreement or achieving the Closing by 5:00pm (New York time) on September 24, 2008 (any action described in clauses (A) through (E), a "Prohibited Action").

3. Debtors Permitted to Take Certain Prohibited Actions in Certain Circumstances

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of Section 2, in the event Debtors receive an unsolicited bona fide offer or proposal for a Competing Transaction prior to the entry of the Sale Order and Debtors' Boards of Directors conclude in good faith (after consultation with its outside financial and legal advisors) that such offer or proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal, then, prior to the entry of the Sale Order, Debtors may, and may permit their subsidiaries and Representatives to, take any Prohibited Action described in clause (B) or (C) (other than enter into any agreement) of Section 2; provided that (x) prior to providing any nonpublic information permitted to be provided pursuant to this sentence, Debtors shall have entered into a confidentiality agreement with such third party on customary terms and which in any event is no less favorable to Debtors than the Confidentiality Agreement, and (y) concurrently with providing such information, Debtors shall also furnish to Purchaser a copy of any confidential data or information that it is furnishing to any third party pursuant to this Section 3 to the extent not previously furnished to Purchaser. "Superior Proposal" means any bona fide written proposal or offer with respect to a Competing Transaction made by a Qualified Bidder (A) to acquire, directly or indirectly, 100% of the Business for consideration consisting of cash and/or securities (with a value of at least $1,875,000,000) and the assumption of substantially all liabilities required to be assumed by Purchaser under the Purchase Agreement, and (B) which is otherwise on terms which the Boards of Directors of the Debtors determine in its reasonable good faith judgment (after consultation with its financial advisor and outside counsel), taking into account, among other things, all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal or offer, (1) if consummated, would result in a transaction that is more favorable, from a financial point of view, to the Debtors' stakeholders than the transactions contemplated by the Purchase Agreement and (2) is reasonably capable of being promptly consummated, including with respect to receipt of all required regulatory approvals. "Qualified Bidder" means a third party that (i) enters into or arranges for one or more credit or liquidity facilities with respect to the obligations of Debtors and the Business that are at least equivalent to the financing facilities to be provided to Debtors and their Affiliates by Purchaser and its Affiliates (which credit or liquidity facilities shall take effect simultaneously with the termination of, and shall supersede, and the proceeds of which shall be used to repay in full, such facilities to be provided by Purchaser and its Affiliates) and (ii) arranges for the termination of any Master Repurchase Agreement, Master Securities Lending Agreement, Master Open Market Agreement or any other financing between any of the Debtors and FRBNY, no later than the opening of business, New York time, on Monday, September 22, 2008 and provides adequate assurance of performance of such obligations in a manner satisfactory to FRBNY.

4. Bidder Required to Provide Certain Information in Connection with Other Competing Bids

Debtors will within 24 hours advise Purchaser orally and in writing following receipt of (1) any offer or proposal for a Competing Transaction or indication by any person that it is considering making an offer or proposal relating to a Competing Transaction, (2) any request for nonpublic information relating to Debtors or its subsidiaries or access to the properties, books or records of Debtors of any of its subsidiaries, other than requests in the ordinary course of business and unrelated to an offer or proposal relating to a Competing Transaction, or (3) any inquiry or request for discussions or negotiations regarding an offer or proposal relating to a Competing Transaction. Debtors will promptly (within 24 hours) provide Purchaser with a copy (if in writing) and summary of the related material terms of any such offer or proposal or request (including the identity of the person making or considering such offer or proposal or making such request) and will keep Purchaser apprised of any material developments, discussions and negotiations on a reasonably current basis (and in any event within 24 hours).

5. Debtors Obligated to Negotiate

Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, prior to entering into an agreement in connection with any Competing Transaction, Debtors shall have provided prior written notice to Purchaser, at least 48 hours in advance (the "Notice Period"), of its intention to take such action with respect to such Competing Transaction, specifying the material terms and conditions of any such Competing Transaction (including the identity of the party proposing to effect such Competing Transaction) and furnishing to Purchaser a copy of the relevant proposed transaction agreements with the party proposing to effect such Competing Transaction and other material documents) and (B) during the Notice

Period, and in any event prior to taking such action, Debtors have negotiated, and have caused its financial and legal advisors to negotiate, with Purchaser in good faith (to the extent Purchaser desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement so that such proposal or offer for a Competing Transaction ceases to constitute a Superior Proposal.

6. Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement

Recognizing the Purchaser's expenditure of time, energy, and resources, the Debtors have agreed that if the Purchaser is not the Successful Bidder, the Debtors will, in certain circumstances, pay to the Purchaser a fee in the amount of $100,000,000 (the "Break-Up Fee") and reimbursement for the Purchaser's expenses (including the fees and expenses of Purchaser's legal counsel and financial advisors) incurred in connection with the Purchase Agreement, the Sale Motion, Sale Order, and the Bid Matters or the Break-Up Fee and Competing Bid Order and financings or proposed financings (the "Expense Reimbursement"), subject to the Expense Reimbursement Cap. The payment of the Break-Up Fee and Expense Reimbursement will be governed by the provisions of the Purchase Agreement and the Break-Up Fee and Competing Bid Order. Under no circumstances will a break-up fee, expense reimbursement or other similar bid protections be provided by the Debtors to any potential bidder or bidder other than the Purchaser that submits a Qualified Bid.

7. Additional Bids by Qualified Bidders With an Initial Qualified Bid and the Purchaser

With respect to additional bids by the Purchaser and any Qualified Bidder which makes a Qualified Bid, subsequent or otherwise higher or better offers shall be in minimum incremental bids with a purchase price of at least an additional $100 million in cash consideration over the last highest offer, with any subsequent bid increases of bids to be made in minimum increments of at least $100 million in cash consideration. The Debtors shall notify the Purchaser of the bid and the value of such bid that their Boards of Directors believe to be the highest offer.

8. The Sale Hearing

The Sale Hearing will be held before the Honorable Judge James M. Peck on September 19, 2008 at 11:00 a.m. (New York time) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, One Bowling Green, New York, NY. The Sale Hearing may be adjourned or rescheduled with the consent of the Purchaser without further notice by an announcement of the adjourned date at the Sale Hearing. If the Debtors do not receive any Qualified Bids (other than the Qualified Bid of the Purchaser), the Debtors will report the same to the Bankruptcy Court at the Sale Hearing and will proceed with a sale of the Purchased Assets to the Purchaser following entry of the Sale Order.
